Rabbi's Message

Try as we might, we can't leave the world behind even in the relaxed days of summer. Terrorism and war continue, Israel builds walls, and New York is blanketed in darkness. The vicissitudes of living show no respect for vacation plans. And yet we do our best to live our daily lives, being grateful for each moment even as we worry about what is yet to come.

We have passed Tisha B'Av, that dark moment in our calendar when we commemorate the destruction of the temple in Jerusalem, and have moved into a more reflective mode. Our Hebrew calendar requires us on a yearly basis to ask ourselves these questions: What is our purpose? How do we return to that purpose if we have lost sight of it? How do we forgive and how do we ask for forgiveness? Where can we love where we have not been successful in loving? These are the essential questions. They remain timeless, uninfluenced by weather and politics and war.

After reflecting as individuals on these questions, we will soon ask them as a community during our high holy days. Use these days to relax and reflect, so that we can come together and return in repentance to the Holy One of Blessing who is the source of all Creation.

Rabbi Ellen J. Lewis

President's Message

Having been the President of the congregation for two months as I write this, I am truly amazed by the love that people have for this organization. During the first months, I have led a lay service with a wonderful potluck dinner afterwards, have become involved in the upgrade of our building, the contract talks with Rabbi Lewis, upgrading our web site, discussing social ideas and your concerns with many of you over the summer and even got to help bail out the basement (again). After having been an involved member for nine years, I am still amazed that I am president. I definitely feel overwhelmed at times, as this job seems to occupy your thoughts at all times. I am still a novice and am depending on the advice of four past presidents, Stan, Helen, Sharon and Gwen. Each one of them has been a huge help to me so far.

I have plans for the fall, winter and spring of having more social events at the temple. Many things have been suggested and we will try as many as we can. My hope is that there will be something for everyone this year.

As we come up to the High Holidays, please consider how you can become more involved in our community. Our committees need volunteers and I need help in getting the social events off the ground. If you are interested in helping, please contact me. I know we will be able to put your talents to good use.

I wish you all a L'SHANAH TOVAH.

Howie Hirsch

A Very Special Shabbat

Our first Rabbi-led service this year will be September 12 at 7:45 p.m. We will install our new board of directors that evening. We will also be dedicating our new sound system for the hearing impaired in honor of Rose Schneider.

Family Game Night

On September 13 at 6:30 p.m. Cheryl Orenstein will explain to all who wish to learn the game of Mah Jong. If you do not wish to play Mah Jong, bring a deck of cards or a board game to play. This event is open to all age groups. Please bring a dessert with you. Reservations are not required. Contact the Temple if you are interested.

Yom Kippur Food Drive

We are having our annual Yom Kippur food drive. Please bring fresh non-perishable items to the temple before Yom Kippur to be donated to NORWESCAP, the local community food bank.

AT&T Cares Grant

Are you a current or former AT&T employee? If you are, any time that you volunteer to the temple can be used for a team grant from AT&T. Please contact the Temple if you qualify. We can earn up to $5,000 a year.

CareLink Mitzvah Opportunity

We have signed up as a sponsor for the MetroWest CARE-LINK program for Rosh Hashanah. They need people to put together and distribute packages (may be meals) for people at Rosh Hashanah. Please contact the Temple if interested.

Education Committee and PTO News

First Day of Sunday School: Sunday, September 7.

Come join the PTO at the Hebrew school — add to your child's education and meet other parents! We meet six times a year. The first Education/PTO meeting is Sunday, September 21 at 9:30 a.m. Even if you help with only one event, you'll make a difference in your child's Jewish life. For information, contact the Temple.

Thank You!

A special thank you goes out to Bryant and Jerry Simons, Colson Hall and Eric Edelstein, who helped to get the water out of our basement at a moment's notice. Your efforts are much appreciated.

Rose Schneider would like to thank all her friends for the flowers and well wishes.

Be sure to check out the new Simcha tree in the front lobby. Many thanks to Ken Weiland for his vision and enthusiasm in creating this masterpiece.

IDEAS and VOLUNTEERS are needed for social events:

If you have an idea for an event at the temple, or involving the temple, Please contact the Temple. I need help in running social events.

Ira Melon was presented the Honey & Maurice Axelrod Award on June 22 at the JCC of Metropolitan New Jersey in West Orange. This award is a cooperative project of the Anti-Defamation League of New Jersey, The New Jersey Commission on Holocaust Education, and the Axelrod family, who for over 15 years has provided financial awards to educators who have proved outstanding effort in the field of Holocaust/Genocide education and prejudice reduction. Mr. Melon received this award with his co-teacher, Adele Black. They teach a 7th grade elective course on the Holocaust in the Rockaway Township public school district.

David Ethan Melon, son of Ruth Bernadette and Ira Melon, has received his BA degree from the University of Virginia. He completed his undergraduate course work with a major in cognitive science and a minor in biology. David is currently employed in a UVA neuroscience laboratory researching secondary brain trauma. He began attending Robert Wood Johnson Medical School in August.

PROGRAMS OUTSIDE THE JEWISH CENTER

New Season of Jewish LIFE Gets Underway!

The new season kicks off Sunday, September 21 at 10 a.m. as Dr. Mildred Goodwin of the Jewish Historical Society of Central New Jersey presents "Outstanding Jewish Directors of the Silver Screen." Join us for the presentation and brunch. $10/ Jewish LIFE members, $15/non-members; guests are always welcome. RSVP to Laura Friedman at the JCC at 908-725-6994 x213; LFriedman@ssbjcc.org.

The new Jewish LIFE Program Guide detailing all programs and events for the coming year will be mailed to all Jewish LIFE members. Register in advance using the registration form. Contact Laura Friedman with questions.

Jewish LIFE needs your support. Consider becoming a Benefactor or Sponsor. For a contribution of $360, your partially tax-deductible contribution entitles you to two tickets and preferred seating at every Jewish LIFE event, a reception with Yossi Klein Halevi ("Is the Palestinian Problem Solvable?") on Sunday, November 2 at 7 p.m., and recognition in the program literature. Yossi Klein Halevi is contributing editor and Israel correspondent of the New Republic and a columnist for the Jerusalem Post, as well as a contributor to other major newspapers. Jewish LIFE sponsorship opportunities for $100 are also available for individual events. Mail your contribution (payable to the JCC) to the Shimon and Sara Birnbaum JCC, 775 Talamini Road, Bridgewater, NJ 08807, Att: Jewish LIFE.

Berman Center for Jewish Studies

Wednesday, September 17, at 4:15 p.m. "The Ever-Alive Dead Sea Scrolls." Lecture by Shalom Paul, Professor of Bible at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem (480 Maginnes Hall, at Lehigh University). He will discuss the three areas of research that have been revolutionized by their discovery: (1) pre-Rabbinic Judaism and its multiple sects at the time of Jesus; (2) the development of the Hebrew Bible and variant text traditions at the time right before and after the turn of the millennium; and (3) the development of early Christianity. Dr. Paul is an editorial advisor for the Biblical Archaeological Review, Bible Review, and Hebrew Annual Review, and the author of many volumes and articles on the Bible, the Ancient Near East, and archaeology. For further information, call the Berman Center for Jewish Studies at 610-758-3352.
